

Tackling Transboundary Threats:

New Developments in International Technical Cooperation for Sustainable Livestock Health

Date

Tuesday, July 7, 2026

Time: 13:30-17:00
(Doors open at 13:00)

Venue

Convention Hall,
The 330th Anniversary Hall,
Kibana Campus,
University of Miyazaki

Capacity: 100 In-Person
150 online

Admission Fee: Free

Scan the QR Code for Advance Registration →

Web Streaming:
JP-EN Interpretation

Lecture1

Science, technology, and international collaboration for FMD Control: Recent activities at NARO

Dr. Katsuhiko Fukai Division of Animal Health,
National Agriculture and Food Research Organization (NARO)

Lecture2

Trends of International Cooperation in Animal Health and JICA's Cooperation Strategy: Co-creation and Circulation

Dr. Yumi Kirino Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA)

Lecture3

From JICA Training to National Impact in Namibia

Dr. Ellini Hamunyela Central Veterinary Laboratory, Namibia

Panel Discussion(General Discussion)

Contact Information

Center for Animal Disease Control (CADIC),
University of Miyazaki
TEL:+81-985-58-7674
Email:cadic@miyazaki-u.ac.jp
Website:https://www.miyazaki-u.ac.jp/cadic/

Organizer:Center for Animal Disease Control (CADIC),
University of Miyazaki

Co-organizers:

Program for Forming Japan's Peak
Research Universities (J-PEAKS)
8-University Consortium for Livestock Biosecurity

Supporters:

Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries, Miyazaki Prefecture,
Japan Veterinary Medical Association
Cooperation:JICA