

【Division of International Cooperation and Education】

1. Enforcement of international relationship system

- 1) Promotion of a project to improve milk hygiene under the JICA Grassroots Program (Republic of Rwanda)
- 2) Promotion of a project on mosquito-borne disease control under the GHIT Program (Thailand and Peru)
- 3) Promotion of international college exchange program with Asian countries (Republic of Indonesia: National Research and Innovation Agency (BRIN), the Fish Quality Inspection Agency (FQIA) of the Ministry of Marine and Fisheries, and the Animal and Plant Quarantine and Inspection Agency (IAQA) of the Ministry of Agriculture, Indonesia)
- 4) Development of high-quality human resources from Asian and African countries
- 5) Promotion of International Veterinary education network (International Symposium of Association of Japan-Indonesia Veterinary Education)
- 6) Cooperation based on the Memorandum of Understanding with each institute
- 7) Invitation for visiting scholars

2. Holding/Participant support for the international symposium (The International Symposium of CADIC)

3. Development of livestock disease control research and educational collaboration through an eight-university consortium for livestock disease control (New grant application)

4. Development of visual learning materials and enhancement of their uses

5. Preparation of the brochure of CADIC in English